Dear parents and carers,

Weekly news update

This week's weather is certainly testing our current value of Positivity!

My highlight this week was Italy's class assembly which reminded all children of the power of kindness, and I remember a recent conversation with the Manager of a local community drop in-centre who told me that the most important role for them was to show people kindness because they don't experience it enough in their lives - and this is on our doorstep!

Other events this week included a multi-sports team who enjoyed taking part in a variety of physical challenges, a Calshot meeting for year 3 parents and a small group of budding Year 6 journalists attended a workshop at Hart Plain Junior school, run by The Portsmouth Evening News. They will get their opportunity to write for the paper over the coming weeks - watch this space!

We are looking forward to seeing many of you on Monday for our annual Beat the Blues day, when we will be aiming to spread lots of positivity in school and beyond!

Enjoy the weekend.
