

Activity 1 - Homophones

Each sentence contains at least two homophones. Can you correctly fill in the gaps?

Look over THERE, it is Gemma and Harold and THEY'RE carrying THEIR new puppy.

The number ____ seed _____ the tennis tournament.

Johnny was not _____ to speak _____ during the class as it distracted other pupils.

Harry and Henry were playing a _____ game, but it was not exciting and they became _____.

The thief was _____ stealing from the supermarket and ended up in _____ in front of the judge.

The driver failed to _____ a suitable parking space and just parked on the road where a traffic warden gave him a ticket and he was _____ £50.

Mrs Doodabs was walking down the street when her _____ broke on her shoe. She fell and cut her knee which took a while to _____ :

The _____ _____ the beds after the family went out.

The class were given a _____ set of challenge questions, thankfully they had studied hard and _____ the answers.

All the countries in the world got together and _____ by _____ they formed a _____ treaty that could not be broken.

The cat knocked the milk over so it would _____ into her bowl, which she then dipped her _____ into to taste. When Mr Whatshisname got home there was no milk for his cup of tea _____ him.

The _____ flew in on her broomstick _____ is a very eco-friendly way of travelling.

I don't know _____ to wear my boots or sandals as the _____ is so changeable.

I _____ like all of the desks made of _____.

Activity 2

Spelling - anagrams

Anagram	Word	Clue
come moat cad		Provide a place for me
pacco many		Go somewhere with a friend
card g coin		He stated that
Vice hae		Succeed
Gives greas		Forceful
A rat emu		Not professional
Cat nine		Very old
Trap a pen		Clear and obvious
Piece apart		Enjoy and value something
Chatted a		Joined to
Ava liable		Ready to be used
E Ravage		The usual standard
Aww dark		Difficult to use
A baring		Cheaper than it should be
Rubies		Being hit can leave this
Great coy		A set of things classified into groups
Mercy tee		Where people are buried
Meet comit		A group working on a project
Tunic come am		To talk to others
Tummy coin		A village can be this
Topic toe min		You can enter this to win a prize
C nice cones		Knowing what is right and wrong
Cousin cos		Awake
Scone v torry		A long disagreement
Venice c neon		Easy to use
Ponders cor		Written communication
I rice tics		To tell someone they have a fault
Riots U icy		Something different and interesting
Tie fined		Certain
Parted see		Reckless and willing to do anything
Timed r need		Strong willed
Pe loved		To gradually grow
Tracy I Dion		All words are here
Strauss I do		A complete failure

Answers:

Activity 1 - Homophones

Each sentence contains at least two homophones. Can you correctly fill in the gaps?

Look over there it is Gemma and Harold and they're carrying their new puppy.

The number one seed won the tennis tournament.

Johnny was not allowed to speak aloud during the class as it distracted other pupils.

Harry and Henry were playing a board game, but it was not exciting and they became bored.

The thief was caught stealing from the supermarket and ended up in court in front of the judge.

The driver failed to find a suitable parking space and just parked on the road where a traffic warden gave him a ticket and he was fined £50.

Mrs Doodabs was walking down the street when her heel broke on her shoe. She fell and cut her knee which took a while to heal.

The maid made the beds after the family went out.

The class were given a new set of challenge questions, thankfully they had studied hard and knew the answers.

All the countries in the world got together and piece by piece they formed a peace treaty that could not be broken.

The cat knocked the milk over so it would pour into her bowl, which she then dipped her paw into to taste. When Mr Whatshisname got home there was no milk for his cup of tea poor him.

The witch flew in on her broomstick which is a very eco-friendly way of travelling.

I don't know whether to wear my boots or sandals as the weather is so changeable.

I would like all of the desks made of wood.

Activity 2

Spelling - anagrams

Anagram	Word	Clue
come moat cad	Accommodate	Provide a place for me
pacco many	Accompany	Go somewhere with a friend card g coin	According	He stated that
Vice hae	Achieve	Succeed
Gives greas	Aggressive	Forceful
A rat emu	Amateur	Not professional
Cat nine	Ancient	Very old
Trap a pen	Apparent	Clear and obvious
Piece apart	Appreciate	Enjoy and value something
Chatted a	Attached	Joined to
Ava liable	Available	Ready to be used
E Ravage	Average	The usual standard
Aww dark	Awkward	Difficult to use
A baring	Bargain	Cheaper than it should be
Rubies	Bruise	Being hit can leave this
Great coy	Category	A set of things classified into groups
Mercy tee	Cemetery	Where people are buried
Meet comit	Committee	A group working on a project
Tunic come am	Communicate	To talk to others
Tummy coin	Community	A village can be this
Topic toe min	Competition	You can enter this to win a prize
C nice cones	Conscience	Knowing what is right and wrong
Cousin cos	Conscious	Awake
Scone v torry	Controversy	A long disagreement
Venice c neon	Convenience	Easy to use
Ponders cor	Correspond	Written communication
I rice tics	Criticise	To tell someone they have a fault
Riots U icy	Curiosity	Something different and interesting
Tie fined	Definite	Certain
Parted see	Desperate	Reckless and willing to do anything
Timed r need	Determined	Strong willed
Pe loved	Develop	To gradually grow
Tracy I Dion	Dictionary	All words are here
Strauss I do	Disastrous	A complete failure