

Talk to the Hand Question Task

When you read a story it raises lots of questions that help you understand the story. Write a question on each finger below for the story you are reading now that starts with who, what, where, when, why.

